Can online students play college sports? • •

The Short answer, yes. If you are a college student who enjoys the flexibility and freedom of online education, but you also feel the irresistible pull of athletic competition, you have an option. Our online program is a full NCAA-certified athletics program.

How Many students took this path?

Today, more than 460,000 college students are certified through the NCAA to play sports at the college level. Of these, more than 54,000 players get the chance each year to compete in one of 89 championship-level events in 24 different sports across three Divisions. But in order to compete, you have to be eligible.

Is it recognized outside the United States?

Yes, our students are gaining the full online education with the US approved and legitimate reports accredited in the United States of America. This means that they can continue their studies at any International University or College. The program is internationally recognized as part of International School Associations, written in the Board of Education of Florida, part of ISDEC systematization, accepted by EQF, included into NCAA list, accredited and fully globally identified.
